

Hello, my name is Julia Curtis and I live in lutruwita on the land of the mumirimina people and I pay my respects to their Elders. My drawings aim to capture the important justice reinvestment stories told from across Australia at this Forum. These are such inspiring stories and the way I have chosen to draw these pictures is gently to show the care and respect that each Community is showing through the important work they are doing.

